GLORY RIDGE

FARM & APIARY LLC

In 2012 we purchased the small farm that would become “Glory Ridge Farm and Apiary.” Our Christian values and passion for self-sustainability led us to seek out a place of solace, and refuge to raise our two children in a lifestyle that was away from the hustle and bustle of town. Utilizing our Appalachian upbringing and much favor from God we followed His leading.

Nestled in the agriculturally rich Back Creek Valley, near the little town of Glengary, WV and in the shadow of Sleepy Creek Wildlife Management Area, Glory Ridge is perfectly situated to produce delicious honey with a unique blend of agriculture and forest.

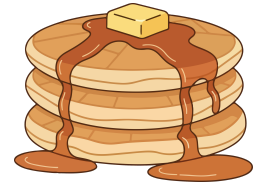

Our farm is a labor of love. We are passionate about sharing our values, successes and mistakes with those that are curious. Beekeeping started out as a small endeavor that was meant to complement our garden and other livestock. It didn't take long for those first three hives to turn into a thriving part time business.

We unwittingly chose pure Russian queens from the very start. As a result, we have continued to source our queens from some of the country's top breeders of pure Russian Honey bees. Although more challenging, this breed of bee has proven to be highly prolific and produces an abundance of honey.

It is our greatest desire to feed people and to share the love of Jesus. Although imperfect, we strive to be better every day and to serve those around us. We greatly appreciate every purchase made of our products. Every purchase enables us to continue to grow our farm and produce some of the best honey we've ever tasted!
