

Rotary Club of Martinsburg Grapevine

Aug 21, 2025

District 7360 | Club 5296

Originally from Kansas, Chanda has found her passion for library services in Martinsburg, West Virginia, proudly serving as the Youth Services Manager at the Martinsburg–Berkeley County Public Libraries. In addition to overseeing youth services for all four Berkeley Co. libraries, Chanda serves as the library's Outreach Coordinator, chair of both the Summer Reading Program and the annual Comic Con event and is an active member of the Fundraising and Book Challenge Committees, as well as co-liaison for the Friends of the Martinsburg Public Library. The Martinsburg–Berkeley County Public Libraries mission is to enhance the lives of all Berkeley County residents through the transformative power of information, imagination and connections.

Chanda shared updates on the progress of the library building located in downtown Martinsburg. The library is currently projected to reopen in January 2026.

Our Branches

Martinsburg-Berkeley County Public Libraries consists of the main branch, Martinsburg Public Library, plus three branches strategically located throughout Berkeley Co. to best serve our population

Musselman-South Berkeley Community Library

Located inside Musselman High School, we rent the space from the high school in exchange for programming & book purchases.

Hedgesville Public Library

Completed in 2014, Hedgesville Public Library was originally the Naylor Memorial Library & had shared a building with Town Hall since 1957.

North Berkeley Library

Located in Spring Mills, this branch is our smallest location, consisting of a mobile classroom trailer that we hope to replace with a physical building in the future.

your library card works at ALL of the branch locations in Berkeley County, WV!

Diane Smith, Laura Beauchamp and Lynette Scallion volunteering at the Community Cup in Martinsburg.

Ida Rosalie has arrived! She started at Martinsburg High School last week. The photo on the right is her first day of school in the USA. She is currently being hosted by club member, Hal VanMetre and family. Ida will stay with Hal's family through the first half of the school year at which time she will transfer to the Sadat family. Ida will be presenting to our club in September.
