Fran Inman sends her regrets and reports that today's student guests from Spring Mills canceled at the last minute.

Guests: Robby Blair was a guest of Michelle Sadat, Norman Marriol was a guest of Manuel Washington, and John Elliot was a guest of Rich McCune.

Program: Tina Nipe, Tenth Degree Technologies

Tina Nipe was raised in Martinsburg and remembers when I-81 was concrete and the speed limit was 55 MPH. She's an avid sports fan and turned her passion for sports into a business.

Tina studied Accounting at Shepherd University but found it not to be her calling after working in the field for many years and becoming a self-taught software developer. She holds software development certifications from Microsoft.

Tina is currently President of Martinsburg Sunrise Rotary and a Washington Football FAN Ambassador. She's served on many non-profit boards and is very passionate about giving back to our community.

Tina has been married to her high school sweetheart, Chuck, for 31 years. They survived the raising of teenagers, successfully launched two children into adulthood, and now is a proud Nona to 2 grandchildren.

Tina talked about her business pre-Covid and how she had to pivot her business because of Covid. With one of her main services being sports management software and support, she felt the effects of Covid immediately due to cancelled sporting events. Tina stepped into e-sports as a result, and this has taken her business to new levels. With her website and social media design and management along with web application creation and management which were already successful parts of her business, Tina has been able to thrive in our current environment and grow her business in more ways than one. E-sports is the way of the future.

Check out her website for more information: <https://tenthdegreetech.com>

She is also on Facebook, LinkedIn, and Instagram.
