Women In the Military

"I live in a glass house so I can ethically throw stones" said Carol Rhan as she finished her presentation on being a female in the military. If you were lucky enough to attend this week then you heard for yourself the very impressive stories Carol told about her journey in the USAF. She began her career as a Russian Linguist and ended her career as a Special Agent -In-Charge. She retired as a Senior Master Sergeant after 22 years of service. Carol met her Marine husband, Larry, while serving overseas. Carol and Larry are now moving to the Armed Forces Retirement Home in DC. This was her last meeting as a member of our club and she will be missed.
